REPORT NO. [REDACTED]

1. In connection with the unloading at Durres by Soviet vessels of vehicles and 300 (sic) aircraft as stated in [REDACTED], other information is to the effect that according to a vehicle driver and other workers in Tirana, 300 "aircraft components" arrived in Durres sometime during March 1951, which were to be assembled under the direction of a Soviet engineer. The Tirana vehicle driver also stated that "many" trucks were unloaded in Durres by Soviet vessels during this same period. 25X1X
2. [REDACTED] Durres, heard drivers there state that 400 new trucks were unloaded in Durres during March 1951. Soon thereafter in March, [REDACTED] saw 35 Soviet ZIS trucks and 6 Czech Tatra trucks delivered to a motor transport agency where the oil fields are located.
